

Texas Chiropractic College Return to Campus Strategic Plan

TCC has developed a phased approach to reopening the campus. This approach is set with tentative dates and will remain flexible due to the ever-changing public health environment. This plan is based on current information as of the publication date. The highest priority is to maintain the health and safety of the campus community. If the June 29th date for everyone's return is not possible, an alternative plan will be implemented to allow for continued delivery of the educational program. This plan will have multiple possibilities based on the current restrictions and necessary mitigation practices needed at that time.
