OFFICE POLICIES

The following are PuraVida Wellness Center's office policies. Please read carefully, and be sure to ask any questions you might have before signing the document.

Consent for Treatment. The Patient and/or the undersigned, give PuraVida Wellness Center my/our permission to evaluate and treat the Patient's injury or condition. I further understand that, in the course of recommended treatment, conditions may worsen on rare occasions. I further understand that no guarantee or promise has been made to me concerning the results of evaluation, care treatment.

Appointment Scheduling and Cancellation Policy. At PuraVida Wellness Center, we understand that unanticipated events happen occasionally in everyone's life. Business meetings, project deadlines, flight delays, car problems, and illness are just a few reasons why one might consider canceling an appointment. In our desire to be effective and fair to all of our patients and staff 24 hour advance notice is required when canceling an appointment otherwise the full fee for the missed appointment will be charged to your account. This allows the opportunity for someone else to utilize our services during that appointment time.

Office Visits. We understand that the undersigned and/or the Patient may come to the office with family, friends or others. The Patient (or, if a minor, the undersigned) acknowledges that the Patient (or undersigned) is solely responsible for children or those in their care. This is an office; we are busy with patients. Please be careful and aware of your surroundings!

Private Health Insurance. I understand that I am responsible for whatever fees my insurance company does not pay on my claim. (Typically, this includes deductibles and/or co-payments.) It is further understood that I, the undersigned, agree to pay the full amount of the charges should my condition be such that it is not covered by my health insurance policy, or if, for any reason, the insurance company and/or my attorney refused to pay my balance at this office.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Arbitration. The undersigned and the Patient agree that any dispute or claim arising from or relating to the office visit(s) and/or the care provided by PuraVida Wellness Center, shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration pursuant to the Florida Arbitration Code, Florida Statutes 682. This includes any injury or losses by you or your children on the premises. Arbitration shall occur in West Palm Beach, Florida and nowhere else.

County Court Exception. The undersigned, the Patient, and PuraVida Wellness Center all agree that any dispute or claim arising from or relating to the office visit(s) and/or the care provided by PuraVida Wellness Center which is within the monetary jurisdiction of county court, Florida Statute 34.01(1)(c), may be brought in arbitration as set forth above or Palm Beach County Court and nowhere else.

Severability/Jury Waiver. In the event any portion of this Chiropractic Care Agreement is deemed unenforceable, that portion shall be severed and all other provisions remain in full force and effect. The undersigned, the Patient, and PuraVida Wellness Center agree that each has waived its rights to a jury trial for any disputes or claims among them.

Chiropractic Care. The undersigned and the Patient agree and acknowledge that PuraVida Wellness Center provides chiropractic care only. The Patient is advised and agrees to consult a medical doctor routinely and as needed. Please ask questions about your health!

CHIROPRACTIC INFORMED CONSENT

The undersigned Patient (which includes the parent/guardian) understands and acknowledges that the Patient is only receiving chiropractic care from PuraVida Wellness Center.

Dr. Kahook is a "chiropractic physician" as defined in Florida Statute 460.403(5)(2008). Chiropractic physicians examine, analyze, and diagnose the human living body and its diseases by use of (a) any physical, chemical, electrical or thermal methods, (b) x-ray for diagnosing, (c) blood tests, and (d) other chiropractic methods. See Florida Statute 460.403(3)(b).

Before you, the Patient, receive chiropractic care, it is important that you read this Consent and understand the nature and risks of chiropractic medicine. The "practice of chiropractic medicine" (or chiropractic care) involves the adjustment, manipulation, and treatment of your body in which vertebral subluxations and other malpositioned articulations and structures may be interfering with the normal generation, transmission, and expression of nerve impulse between the brain, organs, and tissue cells, thereby causing disease. See Fla.Stat. 460.403(9)(a). Chiropractic adjustments, manipulations, and treatments are intended to restore the normal flow of nerve impulse which produces normal function and consequent health. See Fla.Stat. 460.403(9)(a).

The undersigned Patient understands and acknowledges that there are risks associated with the practice of chiropractic medicine and chiropractic care including but not limited to ataxia, bruising, thermal injuries, dislocations/subluxations, dizziness, "drop attacks," fracture(s), mobility disruption, paralysis, quadriplegia, spinal injury, stroke/disruption of blood flow to brain, vision problems, and death.

The Patient is encouraged to ask questions! Although we are not affiliated with and cannot confirm the content of internet sites, resources such as WebMD, Chiro.org, AmerChiro.org, and others may be helpful. The Patient is specifically instructed to consult a medical doctor before receiving (and during/after) chiropractic medicine.

I, the undersigned Patient, understand the risks and limitations associated with the practice of chiropractic medicine, including the use of chiropractic care, evaluation, diagnosis, adjustments, manipulations, and treatments by PuraVida Wellness Center. I hereby give my informed consent to receive chiropractic medicine from Dr. Kahook.

NOTICE OF HELATH INFORMATION PRACTICES

Dear Patient:

This notice describes how information about you may be used and disclosed by this office and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Understand Your Health Record/Information

A record of your visit is made each time you come to our office. This record describes your symptoms, examinations, test results, diagnoses, treatment, and a plan for future care. This record helps us:

- Plan your care and treatment.
- Communicate among the health professionals who contribute to your care.
- Legally describe the care you received.
- Verify to you or a third-party payer that services billed were actually provided.
- Educate health professionals.
- Perform health related research.
- Improve the health of the nation by being a source of information for public health officials.
- Plan and market our facility.

When you understand the information contained in your record and how this information is used, you are able to:

- Ensure its accuracy.
- Understand who, what, when, where, and why others may access your health information.
- Make better informed decisions when authorizing disclosure to others.

Your Health Information Rights

You have the right to:

- Request a restriction of certain uses of your information as provided by 45 CFR 164.522.
- Obtain a paper copy of the notice of information practices upon request.
- Inspect and obtain a copy of your health record as provided for in 45 CFR 164.524.
- Amend your health record as provided in 45 CFR 164.528.
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information as provided in 45 CFR 164.528.
- Request communication of your health information by alternative means.
- Revoke your authorization to use of disclose health information in the future.

Our Responsibilities

Our practice is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information.
- Provide you with a notice as to our legal duties and privacy practices.
- Abide by the terms of this notice.
- Notify you if we are unable to agree to a requested restriction.
- Accommodate your reasonable requests to communicate health information by alternative means.

We reserve the right to change our procedures and to make the new provisions effective for all protected health information we maintain. Should our information procedures change, we will mail you a revised notice to the address you have furnished us.

We will not use or disclose your health information without your authorization, except as described in this notice.

For More Information or to Report a Problem

If you have questions and would like additional information, please call our office at 386.428.9327.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you can file a complaint with us or with the secretary of Health and Human Services. There is no retaliation for filing a complaint.

Examples of Disclosures for Treatment, Payment and Health Operations

We will use your health information in order to provide treatment.

Example: Information obtained by a nurse, doctor, or other member of your healthcare team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment best for you. Your other doctors will be provided with copies of various reports that should assist him of her in treating you once you are discharged from our care.

We will use your health information for payment.

Example: A bill may be sent to you or a third-party payer. The information may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, procedures, and supplies used.

We will use your health information for regular health operations.

Your health record may be used by our staff to assess the care and outcome in your case and others like it in order to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the care we provide.

Business associates: In order to provide you with the care you need we deal with outside business associates. Examples include testing services and copy services. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information to these business associates so that they can perform the job we have asked them to do and bill you or your third-party payer for services rendered. To protect your health information, however, we require these associates to appropriately safeguard your information.

Notification: We may use or disclose information in order to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative, or another person responsible for your care.

Communication with family: We may, in our best judgement, disclose to family members, other relatives, close personal friends or any other person you identify, health information relevant to that person's involvement in your care of for payment related to your care.

Research: We may disclose information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your health information.

Marketing: We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Fund raising: We may contact you as part of a fund-raising effort.

Food and Drug Administration (FDA): We may disclose to the FDA health information relative to adverse events with respect to food, supplements, product and product defects, or post marketing surveillance information to enable product recalls, repairs, or replacement.

Workers compensation: We may disclose health information to the extent authorized by and to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to workers compensation or other similar programs established by law.

Public Health: As required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability.

Law Enforcement: We may disclose health information for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena.

Federal law makes provision for your health information to be released to an appropriate health oversight agency, public health authority or attorney, provided that a work force member or business associate believes in good faith that we have engaged in unlawful conduct or have otherwise violated professional or clinical standards and are potentially endangering one or more patients, workers or the public.
